
LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

During the month ending Wednesday 487 patients were treated at the receiving hospital and 7 deaths occurred at the institution.

The New City Hall Commission has decided to sustain the action of the former commission in ordering the payment of the Tibballs' claim for $3100.

Sergeant Spillane and posse raided a Chinese lottery game at 624 Commercial street yesterday and arrested the Chinese keeper and a white solicitor.

George E. Brown, William Abram, Forest Lowery and Daniel O'Brien, whose ages range from 13 to 17 years, were arrested by Officer Anthony yesterday for mutilating books at the Public Library.

Mrs. Lou Gavin, who was treated at the receiving hospital Wednesday for opium poisoning, was in a greatly improved condition yesterday. She says she took the overdose of morphine accidentally.

Li Young You, the new Consul-General from China, accompanied by Colonel Bee and an interpreter, made a short call on Collector Phelps yesterday afternoon "merely to pay his respects," as the Collector afterward explained.

Gus Worres, alias Joseph Dillon, alias Clay, who has recently finished a term of three and a half years at San Quentin for burglary, was arrested on Clay street early this morning. He carried in his pocket a cobble stone tied up in a handkerchief.

At the inquest on the body of Johan V. Anderson, one of the victims of the Post-street fire, who died from his injuries at the City and County Hospital, the remains were identified yesterday by Frederick Bergatun, one of his employes. A continuance was taken until the injured persons now at the hospital shall have sufficiently recovered to give their evidence.
