

stolen a watch from a room on Stevenson street, has been charged with petit larceny in stealing a lot of carpenter's tools from C. L. Cordenier. The tools were found in his possession, and the defendant identified by means of his nose as the party who was seen carrying them away.

FAGIN CONVICTED.—Lazarus Moses, the Fagin of the Hoodlum Band, was convicted in the Police Court, yesterday afternoon, the jury returning a verdict of guilty after an absence of only five minutes. The boys testified against him, and their evidence was corroborated by that of the Police, who found stolen property in his possession. The defendant testified in his own behalf that he did not know the goods were stolen when he purchased them.
