

Meng Di Reward

San Francisco Chronicle (1869-Current File); Jul 23, 1887;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: San Francisco Chronicle

pg. 6 —

Hong Di Reward.

The reward of $400 offered by the Chinese Consulate at the time of the crime for the apprehension of Hong Di, the murderer of Weaver and Mrs. Billou, was paid on Thursday to Chief Crowley by Consul Bee, for Schubert and Saunders, the apprehenders of the assassin.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.