

PERSONAL NOTES.

B. S. Weaver, United States army, is at the Palace.

L. L. Louis, a Sacramento merchant, is at the Palace.

Prison Commissioner Robert T. Devlin is in the city.

A. T. Hatch, the prominent horticulturist of Suisun, is at the Palace.

F. A. Kilborn, a prominent lumberman of Watsonville, is in town.

Charles Hadsell, who enjoys a rancher's life near Sunol, is in the city.

Peter Decker, the well-known Marysville banker, came down yesterday.

Colonel Ayers of the Los Angeles Herald is at the Palace with his family.

Rev. Father Foley of Napa is the guest of Rev. Father Griffin of St. Mary's Hospital.

Thomas F. Hagerty, well known in the circles of organized labor, went East yesterday.

N. P. Chipman and J. J. Kimball of Red Bluff came down yesterday to get nearer the boom.

Sarah Bernhardt is to make another grand tour in 1888, which will include India, China and Japan.

Dr. L. A. Noyes of St. Paul's Island, Alaska, arrived on the St. Paul yesterday, and is at the Grand.

Vicounte G. G. Bencher of Belgium and Pere A. Gudmy, a Chinese missionary, are stopping at the Palace.

L. A. Blakesley, of the Humboldt House, on the line of the Central Pacific in Nevada, is in the city on business.

Ex-Mayor A. J. Bryant thinks that his colleagues on the Booming Committee should attend the meetings or resign.

Tom Morgan, who is celebrated as the champion seal-clubber on the Pribyloff islands, arrived by the St. Paul yesterday.

Treasury Agent Tingle arrived from the seal islands with his family on the St. Paul yesterday. Mrs. Tingle is very ill and went to St. Mary's Hospital.

Ex-Governor Moses of South Carolina, who was recently pardoned out of the Massachusetts State Prison, has written a book on reconstruction and prison reform.

George Flournoy Jr., the City and County Attorney, is seriously indisposed. He left the city yesterday, by the advice of his physicians, for Howard station, Sonoma county.

Mrs. Coleman Drayton is said to be the best-dressed woman in New York. She spends from $20,000 to $35,000 a year on her attire. This large expenditure is made with the greatest good taste.

Emperor William has presented to the Pope a miter of exquisite workmanship adorned with brilliants, rubies, sapphires and emeralds in honor of the Papal jubilee. The Kaiser also wrote a letter.

The wife of Liang Ting-tsan, the Chinese Consul-General, arrived on the New York yesterday. She was welcomed at the wharf by Colonel Bee, who escorted her to the new consulate in the Ploche building on Stockton street, near Clay.

N. M. Butler, President of the Columbia Technical School of New York City, has just returned from a visit to Sitka and Southeastern Alaska. He says that the schools are of no account whatever and that Governor Swineford goes off on prospecting trips.

William T. Garratt, President, and Colonel William Harney, Vice-President of the Manufacturers' Association, did not leave for Santa Barbara last evening to attend the opening festivities of the new railroad. Business engagements was the cause.

M. M. Meyers, Assistant Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, has received and accepted a call to the General Secretaryship of the Pasadena Association, and expects to assume charge of the work in that city about September 6th or 5th. Mr. Meyers has been connected with the San Francisco association since April, 1884, and has had sole charge of the employment department, and since December, 1884, has served as Assistant General Secretary.

"Aunt Louisa" Elbridge, of the New York stage, is in Paris replenishing her wardrobe. She has many interesting things to tell concerning the jubilee celebration in London, which she witnessed in all its splendor. Mrs. Elbridge is authority for the statement that at the Mansion House ball Princess Louise remarked to the Queen: "It's a long time, Vi key, since so many of us were together. Doesn't it look as if Tussaud's had broken loose?" "Aunt Louisa" caroles high aloft the American flag wherever she goes, jubilee or no jubilee.

An interesting couple in the surf at Long Branch a few days ago consisted of Dr. McGlynn and Henry George. They are both fine swimmers and they seemed to enjoy their bath immensely. Their methods of procedure were radically different. Dr. McGlynn was extremely dignified in the water and floated about on his back in a calm and intellectual manner, in marked contrast to the antics of Mr. George. The latter was as frisky as a boy and dived and jumped about in a way as playful as it was amusing. In a swimming contest between the two reformers Mr. George was the winner.